Obedience training:

We believe sending your pet to a school is counter productive to them growing into their role with you. If you intend to enroll your pet in some type of training, we urge you to choose one that teaches you with your pet. If you're interested in classes we recommend, please ask your adoption counselor. This is a time commitment and a chance to establish your position early as the leader of the pack. You'll get back 100% of what you give.

Veterinary Care:

I understand veterinary care for this pet can extend ten to twenty years. I agree to provide regular and emergency veterinary care for the life of this pet.

Initial here: _____.

Surrender Policy:

In the event I am unable to keep this pet, I understand and agree to surrender them back to Angie's Friends and not to any other animal care facility, person or family member. I further acknowledge the adoption fee is non-refundable and I agree to give a minimum of two weeks notice prior to this surrender so room can be made available for the return of this pet.

Initial here: _____.

I understand this Adoption Application will be used to verify my statements and hereby authorize Angie's Friends to contact the names I provided. I further agree to a home inspection to confirm the environment is what I claim it is. I submit this application in good faith and promise to support and protect the pet I want to adopt for the rest of its natural life.

Angie's Friends recognizes the sensitive nature of the information in this application. Nothing in this application is shared with anyone. It is used to ensure the best possible home for our animals and is for our exclusive use for that purpose.
