Fall 2012 Newsletter

Hello, cooler weather! Hope everyone is enjoying it. Angie has put straw in all of the dog's houses that she cares for daily. Thank you to Maria for getting the many bales of straw for Angie's babies! As the fall and winter go on there will be a continued need for the straw to provide insulation in the dog's houses.

Updates on previous stories

Pixie was adopted in July by a long time AF supporter. Pixie (now called Maggie) has a new dog friend, Max, and several cat friends. Zeus spent several months in his foster home and then was adopted by a lady in Las Colinas. Angie had been wanting to visit Zeus at his foster home but never seemed to find the time. When Zeus was adopted, his new mom invited us to come see him and meet her. New mom, Sue, even fixed a delicious dinner for us! Zeus seemed happy to see Angie and she was incredibly happy to see him and how well he is doing. He has a sweet female dog friend and a cat friend at his new home.

More Adoptions:

Geno was adopted by a nice young couple in June. They wanted a playmate for their dachshund. Peaches and Walter were taken to adoption day on July 7 and a family took a liking to Walter. On July 15 Walter went to live with his new family in Rockwall. It appears that Walter has issues with men and has not been very friendly to the dad. They are continuing to work with Walter and love him. What a wonderful family to persist in their desire to keep Walter!

Angie has rescued many dogs in the past six months. Some were taken to Dallas Animal Services and others were taken by various rescue groups. Angie still has several of them at her house awaiting adoption. A dog that Angie had fed for a long time, Princess, was relinquished to Angie by her owner because the house she was living in had been sold. Princess' owner could not take her to the new living situation. Angie found a dog she named Gus who was taken in by Operation Kindness. Unfortunately, a worker at Operation Kindness let Gus get loose while walking him and he was never found. Angie hopes that some nice people took him in and are providing a good home for him.

Cola

In early September, Angie got a call about a dog stuck behind a soda vending machine near Kiest and Illinois Streets. She named the 4 month old Lab mix Cola for obvious reasons. Cola was placed in a foster home which is now her permanent home! A dog you may have heard about on the news was found with a plastic bottle stuck on his head. Angie and others were able to capture him and get him medical attention. He has been taken in by a rescue group. Angie has found two dogs tied up and abandoned by their owners. She is not sure of the fate of the brown dog because he was taken to Animal Services. The German Shepherd was taken in by DAS as well, but Angie has learned that he was adopted and seems very happy in his new home.

Angie had been keeping an eye out for a stray that would not let her get close to him. She always left him food. One day in October she saw him limping. She walked to him and he lay down and let her pet him. She saw blood and his right hind leg was swollen. He had a bite wound that caused the swelling of the leg. She did not have room to take him in but knew that she was going to adopt out a dog the next week. I took him to my vet for treatment and boarding. Angie named him Milo. After a week at the vets, he went to Angie's and then was accepted by Operation Kindness. He was adopted on October 30th. He has a very sweet temperament—just wants to be loved.

Milo says, "Where are you taking me?" and at the vet.

Tippy, a female Corgi/Chihuahua mix was adopted by a family in Frisco on 11-10-12. Mona was adopted on 11-12-12 by a retired couple in East Dallas. She has a new friend named Hudson. An English Bull Dog named Cowboy was surrendered to Angie by his owners and has been adopted by Angie's nephew.

Angie's Friends received a wonderful donation from the brother of a long time friend of Angie. It is a 2000 Chevy suburban. It has been meticulously maintained and allows her to have a vehicle with a little more room for transporting food, cages, dogs, etc. She still has her other SUV which must have a new battery soon. As long as she can pay the insurance for both vehicles, it will be nice for her to have a backup car.

Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you!
to all of the wonderful supporters for all you do to help Angie and the babies. Angie is currently feeding 28 dogs every day. These dogs have owners who refuse to give them the care and attention they need. She also has 30 or so dogs at her home.

Blessings to you all--
